Information Technology

Policy No. 3.03

SPECIFIC SUBJECT: Information Technology Resources Policy

Adopted: 06/19/1990

Revised: 11/16/1999

Revised: 06/18/2013

APPLIED TO: All Leelanau County Employees

PURPOSE: This policy sets forth Leelanau County's policies with regards to Information Technology ("IT") Resources (e.g., email, electronic voice and video communication, facsimile, the Internet and future technologies) including County access to review or disclosure of electronic files, electronic mail and electronic voice and video communications through or stored on any part of the IT resources systems. This policy also sets forth the policies on the proper use of the IT resources systems. These policies do not constitute a contract. The County reserves the right to change them at any time

1. General Policy:

The IT resources are intended to assist in the efficient and effective day-to-day operations of the County departments and agencies, including collaboration and exchange of information within and between County departments/agencies, other branches of government and outside contact. These resources also provide public access to certain public information.

The IT resources system is to be used for County-related purposes only. The County treats all information stored through or stored in these systems including, but not limited to, voice communication and email messages, as County information.

The County has the capability to access, review, copy, modify and delete any information transmitted or stored in the system, including voice and email messages. The County reserves the right to access, review, copy, modify or delete all such information for any purpose and to disclose it to any party if legally compelled to do so, or if the County otherwise deems it appropriate.

Those voice or other IT resources files containing personal information of an employee as a result of an employee's making incidental use of the IT resources system for personal purposes, including the transmission of personal voice and email messages, will be treated no differently than other files; i.e., the County reserves the right to access, review, copy, modify, delete or disclose them for any purpose required by law, or which the County deems appropriate in its discretion. Accordingly, employees should not use the IT resources system to send, receive or store any information that they wish to keep private. Employees should treat the IT resources system like a shared file system – the files or messages sent, received or stored anywhere in the respective systems will be available for review by authorized representatives of the County and, may be disclosed to third parties.

2. Prohibited Uses of IT Resources:

As stated above, IT resources are to be used exclusively for County purposes. 3. Suggested Practices:

It is suggested that employees undertake the following practices with regards to the use of the County's IT resources.

- a. Confidential County Information: County employees must exercise a greater degree of caution in transmitting confidential information on the computer system than they make with other means of communicating information (e.g., written memoranda, letters or telephone calls) because of the reduced human effort required to redistribute information electronically. Confidential information should never be transmitted or forwarded to outside individuals or companies not authorized to receive that information and should not be sent or forwarded to other employees inside the County who do not need to know the information.

Always use care in addressing email messages to make sure that the messages are not inadvertently sent to outsiders or the wrong person inside the county. In particular, exercise care when using distribution lists to make sure that all addressees are appropriate recipients of the information. Individuals using lists should take measures to ensure that the lists are current.

- b. Viewing and Protecting Electronic Files: In order to guard against improper dissemination of confidential information, employees should not access their computer for the first time each day in the presence of others. Confidential information should not be left open on the screen when a computer is unattended. In addition, do not leave CD-ROM, DVD-ROM, memory cards or other external media containing confidential information out in the open. Keep them locked in drawers or filing cabinets.
- c. Passwords: Employees must use passwords as made available by the County IT resources system to protect against unauthorized access to files on which they are working. (Note, however, that individual passwords do not prevent authorized County representatives from accessing those files.) Access passwords should never consist of names, birth dates or words that can be found in the dictionary. Passwords should combine letters and numbers and be routinely changes every three to four weeks. Never disclose personal or system passwords to anyone other than authorized County representatives.
- d. Attorney-Client Privileged Communications: Some of the email messages or memoranda sent, received or stored on the system may constitute confidential, privileged communications between the County and its attorneys. Upon receipt of a message or memorandum from counsel or creation of a message to counsel, do not forward it or its contents to others inside the County without counsel's authorization. Never forward such messages or their contents to any third parties.
- e. Copyrighted Information: Use of the computer system to copy and/or transmit software programs, documents or other information protected by copyright law is prohibited by federal law and may subject you and the County to civil and criminal penalties. Never copy software programs of any kind without express authorization from the Leelanau County Information Technology Department. Never accept copies of any software programs from any other employees without approval from the Leelanau County Information Technology Department.
- f. Installation of Software: Since some software programs may be incompatible with the IT system or may contain viruses, do not install any software into the County IT system without prior approval of the Leelanau County Information Technology Department.
- g. Email Etiquette: Please note that your email and voice mail messages may be read or heard by someone other than the persons to whom they are sent and some day may be disclosed to outside parties or to a court in connection with litigation. Accordingly, please create and send messages that are courteous, professional and business-like. Refer to the Leelanau County Email Policy for more information.

4. Use of the Information Services Department:

You should contact the Leelanau County Information Technology Director if:

- a. You receive or obtain information to which you are not entitled;
- b. You become aware of breaches of security;
- c. You learn of inappropriate use of County-provided IT resources;
- d. Any threats to or against a County employee or County property should immediately be reported to the Leelanau County Information Technology Director.

Please seek the advice of a person in the Leelanau County Information Technology Department if you are in doubt concerning your authorization to access any particular IT resource.

To ensure that employees comply with this policy, the Leelanau County Information Technology staff may conduct periodic audits of the IT system, including individual personal computers, or back-up tapes. An employee's failure to comply with this policy may lead to disciplinary action.

Each County department or agency shall review complaints or instances of unacceptable use brought to its attention. Violators are subject to corrective action and discipline, up to and including discharge, and may also be subject to civil prosecution or prosecution under state or federal statute.
